No. 11

Do you think that God purposely put the phrase “do not be afraid” in the Bible 365 times because there are 365 days in a year, therefore telling us not to be afraid every day?

THE PHRASE
"DO NOT BE AFRAID"
IS WRITTEN IN THE BIBLE
365 TIMES

THAT'S A DAILY REMINDER FROM GOD

TO LIVE EVERY DAY BEING FEARLESS

In 1 Tim. 1:13, Paul says he was a blasphemer. Was he blaspheming against the Holy Spirit (Luke 12:10)?

Is there any difference in blaspheming against Christ and the Holy Spirit?

What is the difference between being tested and being tempted? For instance, if God tests you vs. when Satan tempts you.

I'm assuming it's the end goal of both but I'd greatly appreciate hearing your take on it.

Is Proverbs 27:6 a prophecy for Judas betraying Jesus?

Did Jesus pick Judas
as an apostle because he knew he would betray him?

If God knows the future and what will come about, does that mean you're predestined to go to heaven or hell?

If Jesus knew before time that he would die on the cross, why did he ask for the cup to pass from him?

When we die, will we be at rest or in heaven?
