

A Means of Escape

2 Peter 1:3-4

His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and excellence, by which he has granted to us his precious and very great promises, so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world because of sinful desire.

Genesis 3:8

And they heard the sound of the Lord God walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God among the trees of the garden.

Genesis 19:15-16a

As morning dawned, the angels urged Lot saying, “Up, Take your wife and your two daughters who are here, lest you be swept away in the punishment of the city.

But he lingered.

Genesis 19:16b-17a

So the men seized him and his wife and his two daughters by the hand, the Lord being merciful to him, and they brought him and set him outside the city. And as they brought them out, one said “Escape for your life.”

Luke 21:34-36

But watch yourselves lest your hearts be weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and cares of this life, and that day come upon suddenly like a trap. For it will come upon all who dwell on the face of the Earth. But stay awake at all times, praying that you may have strength to escape all these things that are going to take place and to stand before the son of man.

Ephesians 2:1 (I)

And I'm dead in the trespasses and sins in which I walk, following the course of this world, following the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work in the sons of disobedience... among whom I'm still living, in the passions of my flesh, carrying out the desires of my body and my mind, and I'm by nature a child of wrath, like the rest of mankind.
